

PARENT OR STUDENT NOTIFICATION
RELEASE OF INFORMATION TO MILITARY RECRUITERS

The Federal No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), a Federal law, requires RRPS to provide specific information (name, address, telephone number) on secondary school children (grades 9-12) to military recruiters who request it unless the parent or student (if 18 years of age or older) indicates that this information should not be released without prior written parental consent. If you do NOT want this information released to military recruiters, please check the box below and return the form to your child's school within 14 days of your child's registration.

I object to the disclosure of the name, address, and telephone number of the student named on this form to military recruiters without prior written parental consent.
