

Dual Credit

Earn High School and College Credits
at the same time!

What are dual credit courses?

College courses in which RRHS students can earn both college and high school credit.

1-2 college credit = .5 RRHS credit

3-4 college credits = 1 RRHS credit

Do these courses cost money?

College tuition is waived — students may be responsible for fees and other associated costs.

Who can enroll in dual credit courses?

Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors

When are the courses offered?*

At a variety of times during the day, evening, and on weekends.

There are also online courses.

Where can I take these courses?*

Classes are located throughout the Albuquerque and Rio Rancho area, including Rio Rancho Mid High and the UNM-Los Alamos campus in Bernalillo

See the semester schedule of the appropriate school for locations and times.*

Why should I enroll in these courses?

- Earn college credits now with out paying tuition
- Starting with the class of 2010, one credit of AP, Dual Enrollment or Distance Learning will be a graduation requirement

How can I learn more about enrolling in these courses?

Contact an academy counselor or

Roseann Cochran in the RRHS Career Center
in Admin 104

Call 896-5616

Email rconchran@rrps.net