The Board of Education is responsible for the control and accounting of all funds of the school district including all funds collected at individual schools. The Superintendent or designee shall be responsible for detailing and maintaining all procedures necessary to assure proper fiscal and internal controls to minimize risk of loss.